

1 The Colin Hallahan Band

Old Lyme Firehouse | 69 Lyme Street

Make Music welcomes back Old Lyme's own Colin Hallahan! Stop by the firehouse to enjoy Colin's popular renditions of covers and his originals. Subscribe to his YouTube station and stream his latest release "Someone Else With Your Name."

2 Chris Gregor

Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe | 68 Lyme Street

Award-winning Chris Gregor performed at our first Make Music Old Lyme, and he's back this year with an upbeat mix of popular covers and originals with soaring vocals and outstanding guitar performance.

3 Bluebird

Patricia Spratt for the Home | 60 Lyme Street

Formerly known as Hot Strings Cafe, Sherrill, Leigh, Bob, and Don along with guitars, violin, and string bass share with you an eclectic blend of bluegrass, blues, country, folk, old-time jazz, pop, rock n roll, Western swing, and originals. In summary, Americana!

4 Laurie Mattson

Lymes' Youth Service Bureau | 59 Lyme Street

Venue Update: We are excited to have Laurie Mattson join Make Music Old Lyme! Laurie got started locally at open mics and at Nightingale's and tonight brings her own blend of indie rock to Lyme Street. Welcome Laurie! [Note: Undercover Cameo as previously promoted is unable to attend tonight's program.]

5 The Midnight Anthem

Center School Lawn | 49 Lyme Street

Catherine, Sophia & Grace are joined on stage by Ian and Dominick, and play an eclectic blend of covers & originals, best described as country, Americana, rock & everything in between! The Midnight Anthem's first release Momma Needs a Margarita came out on Mothers' Day 2023. See where they are playing next at TheMidnightAnthem.com.

6 Mellow Men Two

Memorial Town Hall | 52 Lyme Street

Stop by and enjoy these two veteran musicians who mix it up any which way - Make Music Old Lyme 2024 brings you Kipp Sturgeon on multiple instruments and Gary Buttery rocking the tuba!

7 Lämning

Law Offices | 44 Lyme Street

Lämning uses music as a universal human language, spanning tongues, time, culture, and history. The band's sound is rooted in Scandinavian and early European music, but reflects their own musical backgrounds. Lämning seeks to resurrect echos of a shared human past through music. Learn more about this eclectic adventure at lamning.com.

8 Band of Friends

Library Patio | 2 Library Lane

Nightingale's Pickin' Party fave Steve Patarini and his Band of Friends are back sharing their great acoustic performances. Catch these friends at Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe.

9 Paul Loether

Residence | 32 Lyme Street

Paul Loether is an "Old-School"-style folksinger and fingerstyle guitarist whose expressive vocals cover a broad range of traditional and contemporary folk music. Paul has performed as a solo artist throughout much of southern New England and the Washington, DC, area. For many years, he was a lead vocalist, guitarist, and stand-up bass player for the Maryland-based band Silver Strings MD. Find him on YouTube @Paul-to5mg.

10 Howling Hound Dogs

Homeward Collective | 24 Lyme Street

The Howling Hound Dogs are an acoustic roots washboard trio and their toe-tappin', hand-clappin', finger-snappin' shows have thrilled audiences throughout New England. Their jam creates a unique approach to swing, classic country, upbeat blues and funny original songs. HowlingHoundDogs.com

12 Old Lyme Town Band

First Congregational Church | 2 Lyme Street

5:30 pm start time. The Old Lyme Town Band embraces the history and the heritage of the American Community Band which first began in Old Lyme in 1886. Members of all ages bring audiences its catalogue of over 500 pieces that includes everything from John Williams' "Star Wars Theme" to Percy Grainger's "Country Gardens." OldLymeTownBand.com.

11 Five Bean Row

Village Shoppes | 16 Lyme Street

Five Bean Row returns to Old Lyme! This popular band that plays throughout the region will have you tapping your toes to their Americana, jazz, and Bluegrass sounds. Follow them on Facebook.

During the Music Stroll from 5pm-7pm, be sure to check out....

Refreshments

- Grill Items by the Lyme-Old Lyme Lions Club: Center School @ 49 Lyme Street
- Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe: 68 Lyme Street
- The Chocolate Shell: 16B Lyme Street

More Fun

- Musical Fun for the Kids: Old Lyme Historical Society @ 55 Lyme Street
- Boutique Shopping: Homeward Collective @ 24 Lyme Street

Thank you...

...to you, for coming out this evening and supporting all of the great musical talent.

...to the musicians who provided free entertainment in a very busy season. Please check out their future performances on their websites and social media.

...to the organizations, businesses, and residents who hosted our musicians tonight, staffed their buildings, and met electrical and other needs.

...to the folks at Music Now Foundation/Nightingale's Acoustic Cafe and LYSB for organizing tonight's great line up!

... to the Cultural Coalition for their leadership in today's regional Make Music event.

...A Very Special Thanks to our Event Sponsor Pasta Vita, and special thanks to Shoreline Web News LLC (Lymeline) and Caliber Computing for their generous support.

Please support all of the businesses and organizations that contributed to this evening's success!

Post your photos #MakeMusicDaySECT and tag @theculturalcoalition and @oldlymeartsdistrict

You Can Also Follow the Stroll On Your Mobile Device!

MAKE MUSIC

Southeastern CT

*Old Lyme Stroll
Guide to Performances*

Friday, June 21, 2024

Sunny Train @ LYSB 4pm-5pm

Stroll on Lyme Street @ 5pm-7pm

ExploreOldLyme.com/ArtsDistrict